

Feb. 3, 1940

Dear Mariner —

If the news item I read in route is correct you are satisfied and I can express my own pleasure that you are to remain in public service for some time at least.

My congratulations are brief - owing to a shaky train - but they are hearty -

Best wishes as ever

Sincerely yours

Mariner Eccles

Dear Don:

Your note of February 3, written notwithstanding the difficulties of penmanship on a train, was very much appreciated. While I do not know what the Senate may do about the appointment, it is gratifying to have the encouragement of my friends, especially those like yourself who know from personal experience of the pains and perils of the public service.

With kindest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

Received in Chairman's Office
