

EDMUND STEVENSON BURKE JR
UNION COMMERCE BUILDING
CLEVELAND

February 7, 1940

Hon. Marriner S. Eccles
Board of Governors of
The Federal Reserve System
Washington, D.C.

My dear Mr. Eccles:

Please permit me to congratulate you on your reappointment as Chairman of the Board of the Federal Reserve System. I have been under the weather for a few days, and that is why I did not get this note off to you sooner.

I often think of my pleasant association with you, and I wish you every further success in this very important position.

With kind regards, and hoping that you are very well, I am

ESB, Jr.-C

Yours truly,

E. S. Burke, Jr.

February 8, 1940.

Dear Mr. Burke:

I was very pleased to have your note of February 7 with reference to my reappointment which still has to run the gamut of the Senate, but I was distressed that you have been ill and trust that you are now entirely recovered.

I have always felt grateful to you for continuing your service in the System as long as you did and, as you know, greatly regretted that you felt it necessary to discontinue it. I hope I may have the opportunity of seeing you, nevertheless, whenever you may have occasion to be in Washington or I to go to Cleveland.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Edmund S. Burke, Jr.,
Union Commerce building,
Cleveland, Ohio.
