DELIGHTED TO SEE THAT YOU HAVE JUST BEEN NAMED AND CONFIRMED FOR CONTINUED SERVICE WITH THE FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD=

JOHN G WINANT

January 24, 1944.

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

Your thoughtful cable in regard to my confirmation for an extension of my term is greatly appreciated. You are so occupied with the heavy responsibilities which you have carried with such distinction that I am the more pleased at your troubling to take note of this relatively small matter.

I need not tell you that I always have valued your friendship as I have your counsels, and that I miss the closer associations with you which I was privileged to have in the past.

May this New Year, now underway with such great promise, bring you renewed strength and continued success in your important mission.

Sincerely yours,

The Honorable John G. Winant,
American Ambassador,
London, England.
