BERKELEY, CALIFORNIA

January 24, 1944.

Mr. Marriner S. Eccles,
Chairman, Board of Governors,
Federal Reserve System,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Eccles:

It gives me great pleasure to observe that President Roosevelt has nominated you for another fourteen-year term of membership on the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. This is a recognition of faithful and efficient service.

As an old friend of your father's, it gives me especial pleasure to note this further recognition of your ability and willingness to serve the country.

Very sincerely yours,

G. M. Cornwall

January 29, 1944.

My dear Mr. Cornwall:

I was indeed pleased to receive your note of January 24 regarding my reappointment as Chairman for another term.

It is always gratifying to receive expressions of encouragement and interest, particularly from an old friend of my father's, and I wish to thank you for taking the time and trouble to write to me.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. George M. Cornwall,
1819 Monterey Avenue,
Berkeley, California.
