Dear Jim:

Your thoughtful note regarding my confirmation for reappointment is very much appreciated. I, too, regret that I have not had an opportunity to see you, for I have only the pleasantest recollections of the times we met and, as I need not add, I have always counted your friendship among the real and lasting compensations of life in Washington.

May I take this opportunity to reciprocate most heartily your good wishes for health, happiness and continued success.

Sincerely yours,

Honorable James A. Farley,
