

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

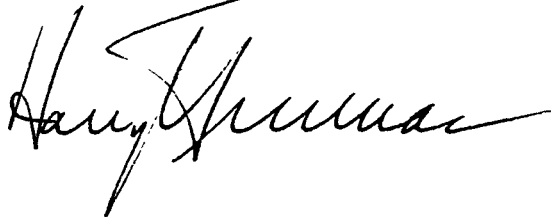

March 16, 1946

Dear Mr. Eccles:

I appreciated very much your thoughtfulness in sending me your note of March fifteenth and the memorandum on the Employment Act. I am pleased to know of your interest and to have your suggestions.

We are going to have a real program if this legislation can be implemented at this end of the avenue and, of course, that depends entirely on the individuals who are on that Commission.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Harry Truman". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

Honorable M. S. Eccles
Chairman
Federal Reserve System
