

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

February 21, 1940.

My dear Mr. Eccles:

Before the President left he asked me to write you and say that he hoped you and Mrs. Eccles could attend the annual services to be held at St. John's Church, Lafayette Square, on Monday morning, March fourth, at ten thirty o'clock.

This anniversary service was begun on March 4, 1933, and the President feels that it has been of great benefit to all those who have attended.

Very sincerely yours,

Stephen Early
Secretary to the President.

Hon. Marriner S. Eccles
