

December 19, 1941.

My dear Mr. Delano:

In response to your letter inquiring whether I desire to continue receiving the confidential reports from the National Resources Planning Board, I hasten to say that they are of real value and importance to me in connection with my official responsibilities.

I appreciate your writing me about this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Honorable Frederic A. Delano, Chairman,
National Resources Planning Board,
Executive Office of the President,
Washington, D. C.
