

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

January 18, 1938

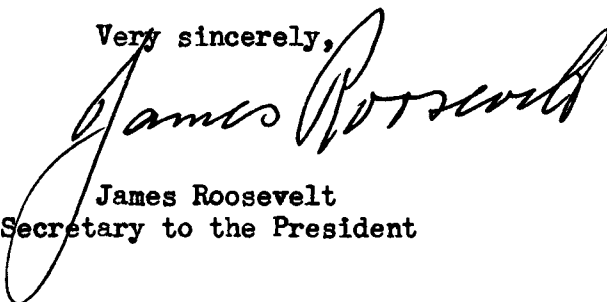

Dear Governor Eccles:

As you know, Mr. Joseph Sheehan has been assisting me in connection with the weekly conferences. His work with the Maritime Commission no longer permits his giving up this time, and Mr. James H. Rowe is now helping me in this connection.

I am just sending this note to let you know of the change as Mr. Rowe may have occasion to communicate with you.

With my best wishes to you,

Very sincerely,
