

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY
WASHINGTON

November 14, 1935.

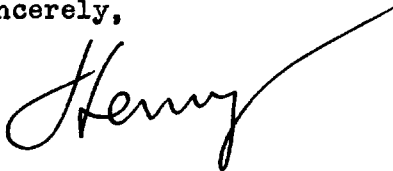

Marriner

Dear ~~Mr. Eccles~~:

During our staff conference yesterday, Mr. Julian told at some length of the very fine cooperation which had been given through different Federal reserve officials in the matter of appointing those on relief to special assignments which they could fill.

Mr. Julian particularly spoke of the friendly and cooperative spirit shown in Atlanta where the Deputy Governor made unusual efforts to help these men get started. I just want to let you know that I appreciate both these specific incidents and the general attitude toward the problem.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Henry", with a long, sweeping flourish extending to the right.

Honorable Marriner S. Eccles,
Governor, Federal Reserve Board,
Washington, D. C.

Chairman
~~xxxxxxx~~

November 21, 1935.

Dear Henry:

I appreciate your letter of November 14th referring to the fine cooperation which you have been given through the different Federal Reserve officials in the matter of appointing those on relief to special assignments which they could fill, as reported to you by Mr. Julian.

I am sending copies of your letter to each of the Federal Reserve banks.

Sincerely yours,

Honorable Henry Morgenthau, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury,
Washington.

Chairman
~~XXXXXXXX~~

November 21, 1935.

My dear Mr. Young:

I am enclosing a copy of a letter I received from the Secretary of the Treasury which I feel will be of interest to you.

It is always encouraging to the Board to receive such favorable reports.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.

Mr. R. A. Young, Governor,
Federal Reserve Bank of Boston,
Boston, Massachusetts.

enclosure

Same letter sent to all Governors.

MSE:VE:b