

March 25, 1939.

Dear Henry:

I want to offer you my compliments and congratulations on the fine work you did in presenting your views on the Social Security Act before the Committee on yesterday.

I feel sure that this is the sound thing to do from an economic and business standpoint and that your action will have the general approval which it deserves.

Sincerely yours,

Honorable Henry Morgenthau, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury,
Washington, D. C.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY
WASHINGTON

March 27, 1939.

My dear Mr. Eccles:

In the absence of the Secretary, who is away on a brief vacation, I am acknowledging your letter of March 25th. It will be brought to Mr. Morgenthau's attention as soon as he returns to the office, and in the meantime I am sure he would wish me to thank you for your words of commendation concerning his recent appearance before the Committee.

Sincerely yours,
