

January 29, 1942.

Dear Henry:

Many thanks for sending me the Irving Berlin recordings which help to celebrate the President's birthday and even make taxes more palatable.

While I do not find time to turn on the gadget that plays things like this, the younger generation does, and it is a record for future generations that I am glad to have in my collection.

Sincerely yours,

Honorable Henry Morgenthau, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury,
Washington, D. C.
