

THE UNDER SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY

WASHINGTON

December 7, 1942

Dear Marriner:

This will confirm arrangements made over the telephone for a meeting on Wednesday, December nine, at 4:00 p.m. in Room 218, Treasury Building. The first session will adjourn about six o'clock.

I am sorry that you can not stay for dinner and attend the evening session, which should not last longer than two hours. If your plans are altered in any way so that you can attend, we would be glad to have you.

Sincerely yours,

Honorable Marriner S. Eccles,
Chairman, Board of Governors,
Federal Reserve System,
Washington, D. C.

