PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Henry:

The two meetings of the Federal Reserve Bank presidents and myself with you on last Friday were of such vital importance to the Federal Reserve System as well as to the Treasury that the stenographic transcript or minutes of the two meetings should, it seems to me, be available to us as well as to you. I would, therefore, very much appreciate it if you would furnish me with a copy of the transcript of the meeting in the morning and that in the afternoon so that there may be no question so far as we all are concerned of differences arising as to our recollection of what was said.

Sincerely yours,

Honorable Henry Morgenthau, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury,
Washington, D. C.
