

Mr. Johnston.

The attached came in addressed to Mr. Ransom's attention and was, therefore, not stamped with our receipt stamp.

THE UNDER SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY
WASHINGTON

June 3, 1943

Dear Marriner:

For your information, at the request of the Secretary, there is attached a copy of another article which appeared in the New York Journal American last night.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Dan".

Honorable M. S. Eccles,
Chairman, Board of Governors
of the Federal Reserve System,
Washington, D. C.

This file contained a transcript of a copyright-protected article that has been removed.

The citation for the original is:

Gould, Leslie. "Proven War Loan Drive Setup Loses to Politics." New York Journal-American, June 2, 1943.

June 7, 1943.

Dear Dan:

As you know, the Chairman is on a brief visit in the West and will come back, I understand confidentially, with an L.L.D. from the University of Utah. I hope this doesn't qualify him as a braintruster.

In his absence, I wanted to acknowledge your note of June 3 enclosing a copy of that poisonous essay by Leslie Gould in the New York Journal American of June 2. Happily, there has been a minimum of this kind of stuff.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) Elliott Thurston

Honorable D. W. Bell,
Under Secretary of the Treasury,
Washington, D. C.
