March 27, 1935.

Mr. William T. Foster,
Pollak Foundation for Economic Research,
Newton, Massachusetts.

Dear Mr. Foster:

In accordance with your letter of March 25th, I am sending to you herewith the following in connection with the Banking Bill of 1935:

- Statement to the Press on February 8th
- Copy of my address before the Ohio Bankers Association on February 12th
- Statement on Titles II and III of the Banking Bill before the House Banking and Currency Committee on March 4th
- Copies of hearings before the House Banking and Currency Committee on March 4, 5, 6, 11, 12, 13 and 14 (Balance of hearings will be forwarded as completed)
- Copy of the proposed Banking Bill of 1935
- Modifications in the Bill proposed by me before the House Banking and Currency Committee

I appreciate your willingness to appear before the Senate Committee in case they request you to do so.

I am sure your recent trip to the Middle West must have been very interesting and satisfactory to you. I enjoyed reading the clipping from the Milwaukee News relative to your remarks out there.

I appreciate all the fine things you have been saying about me -- I hope you will never find out that you have been mistaken in your judgment!

With kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,
