Hon. Marriner S. Eccles, Chairman,
Board of Governors,
Federal Reserve System,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Marriner:

No word has thus far come from
Dick Simpson pursuant to my letter of June 26.
He will of course let me know as soon as anything develops in Jesse Wolcott's committee on the bank holding company bill.

The enclosed note from Senator Edward Martin need not be returned to me. He will do what he can at the proper time.

Will be writing again to you as soon as I hear "what's cookin'", as Walter Wilson says.

Sincerely yours,

Charlie
Secretary.
