

January 24, 1935.

Mr. Charles W. Collins,
Attorney at Law,
National Press Building,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Collins:

I have just finished reading the copy of the letter of the Transamerica Corporation dated February 15, 1929, addressed to Mr. McGarrah. This matter is very interesting and I appreciate your having afforded me the opportunity of reading it. I shall, of course, keep it in my confidential file.

With best wishes, I am

Very truly yours,

Lawrence Clayton,
Assistant to the Governor.

LC/lem