L C Clayton, (Personal)
Federal Reserve Board,

Just sent the following wire to Mr Hamlin which is self explanatory.
Please treat my sending it to you as confidential.

"My attention has just been called to an article appearing in American Banker on my appearance before your Board yesterday. Doubtless you have been informed of the fact that prior to my appearing yesterday the New York Evening Post, American Banker, Wall Street Journal and other papers printed the story of my coming there. May I take the liberty of saying to you that such publicity is detrimental to our institutions and anything you can do to prevent such publicity in the future will be greatly appreciated. Can it be that Mr Eugene Meyer's friend Mr Morrill is responsible for this. Am sorry to have troubled you so much. You have been most kind"
