Please convey to your good chief my sincerest thanks and appreciation for Board's disapproval of Calkins' appointment and may I say that substitution of First Vice President Day in his stead would be almost the equivalent of Calkins still being at the helm. Day and Calkins both refused in nineteen eleven to continue with Bank of Italy when their Mechanics bank of which they were the managing officers was taken over after stockholders made good to Bank of Italy their bank's deficit. Cordial regards
