PERSONAL

Mr. A. P. Giannini
Bank of America
San Francisco, California

Dear Mr. Giannini:

It was a source of regret to me that you were absent from San Francisco when I was there with my family last month. I was glad of the opportunity to talk to you over the telephone however, and enjoyed the brief visit I had with your subordinates at the head office. I had hoped, however, to have a personal visit with you as there were several matters that I had on my mind to discuss with you. These will have to wait for the next opportunity.

While Mrs. Clayton has already written her thanks I wish to add mine for the very thoughtful gift of fruit and flowers which you sent to the hotel. The whole family were very proud of this mark of your esteem and the children particularly brought these gifts to the attention of every caller who came into our rooms. To say the least, your thoughtfulness very much heightened the pleasure of our visit to San Francisco which will remain a very pleasant memory for the years to come.

Yours sincerely,

Lawrence Clayton
