

Think it would be great strategy for the President to have one of the local FRB appointments coming from Riverside, Orange and San Bernardino counties where citrus fruits are main industry. Probably Orange or Riverside representative would be best as they went Democratic this year having always heretofore been strongly Republican. STOP

Orange County Warren M. Bradford of Bradford Bros. Inc. packers and shippers of citrus fruits shipping through California Fruit Growers Exchange. Is also president Placentia, Orange County Exchange. His address is Placentia. Splendid young man also oil operator. J. F. Graff, Jr., vice president Alta Loma Heights Citrus Association. Address Alta Loma, San Bernardino County. Is also director irrigation company and Romosa Water Company. Very active county farm board. Wm. H. Robinson, president Victoria Avenue Citrus Association, Riverside. Prominent and influential but perhaps too old as close to 70. STOP Cecil N. Funk, Riverside, Cal. Manager Riverside Heights Association. President National Orange Company. STOP Edgar T. Wall, Riverside, California. Big orange grower and packer. STOP Herman Allgeyer, Anaheim, Cal. Director Anaheim-Valencia Orange Growers Association. STOP Carl Newman, manager Irvine Ranch, Anaheim. President Calavo Growers Association of Anaheim. STOP Fay F. Frantz, citrus and avocado grower. R.F.D. La Habra, Orange County. Director Calavo Growers of California. STOP W. F. Espolt, vice president La Habra Citrus Association, La Habra, Cal. STOP B. C. Wohlford, Escondido, San Diego County. About 40 years old. President Escondido Mutual Water Company and Escondido Orange Association. STOP Neils Matzen about 60 years old. Escondido. President Escondido Lemon Association.

Member citrus growers this district. STOp Was pleased to learn
Rosecrans most likely selection as representative from Los Angeles County. Very keen and able fellow. Slated to be president of Chamber of Commerce in 1938. Whoever made this choice certainly knew his business. Warmest regards.

A P. Giannini