

GENERAL COUNSEL
TREASURY DEPARTMENT
WASHINGTON

December 4, 1943

Dear Marriner:

We are planning to have a meeting on Thursday, December 9, at 4:30 P. M. to explore the subject of tax incentives, particularly in relation to the stimulation of production and employment after the war. The meeting will be held in Room 218, in the Treasury Building. It will be informal and on the technical level. We hope in this and subsequent meetings to have an interchange of ideas which will clarify the issues, indicate the available information, and lead to the development of further facts required for policy formulation.

We would be glad to have you and anyone else you may care to bring attend the meeting. It would be a convenience if you could telephone my secretary and indicate how many will attend from your office.

Sincerely yours,

Randolph E. Paul
General Counsel

Honorable Marriner Eccles
Chairman, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System
Washington, D. C.
