

February 2, 1938.

Dear Matt:

Now that the housing bill has passed, I wanted to send you this note in appreciation of the fine work you have done.

I know the difficulties and complexities of the task, possibly better than anyone else, and I realize how much your own untiring efforts and intelligent handling of it are responsible for the passage of this desirable legislation. You are entitled to genuine personal satisfaction for having done a difficult job well.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.

Mr. J. M. Daiger,
Federal Housing Administration,
Washington, D. C.
