Attention: Miss Jo Ann Aufdenkamp, Librarian

Gentlemen:

Mr. Bethea has turned your letter of August 1 over to me for a reply.

Several months ago Mr. Eccles made an off-the-record speech before the Ohio College Group. It was not published. He discussed social security as one aspect of it. In replying to a letter from Senator Cain relative to social security, Mr. Eccles quoted from that speech and his reply appeared in the Congressional Record. Mr. Wilcox, who wrote the article appearing in The Hoosier Banker, must have gotten his information from that letter. I am, therefore, enclosing ten copies of his letter to Senator Cain.

Very truly yours,

Secretary to Mr. M. S. Eccles.
