February 20, 1943.

Honorable James F. Byrnes, Director,
Economic Stabilization Board,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Byrnes:

Enclosed are twenty-five copies of the memorandum on the economic effects of the mandatory forty-eight-hour week that you suggested Chairman Eccles send to you to be distributed to the other members of the committee.

If you have need for any more copies, we can supply them.

Sincerely yours,

Elliott Thurston,
Special Assistant to the Chairman.
