

May 12, 1945.

Dear Fred:

It occurred to me that you would be interested in noting, if you have not already seen it, the enclosed clipping from the New York Times of Friday, May 11. It is highly pertinent to that discussion we had at lunch-time on Thursday when we resolved ourselves into war strategists.

Anyway, it goes to the heart of the problem and makes a most intelligent and objective proposal.

Sincerely yours,

The Honorable Fred M. Vinson,
Director,
Office of War Mobilization
and Reconversion,
The White House,
Washington, D. C.
