

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

In reply refer to IC

March 5, 1946

My dear Mr. Eccles:

I was pleased to learn from Secretary Vinson that the United States Delegation to the Inaugural Meeting of the World Fund and Bank scheduled to convene at Wilmington Island, near Savannah, Georgia, on March 8, 1946, may have the benefit of your advice and counsel.

There is enclosed for your information a list giving the composition of the United States Delegation to the meeting. You will receive a separate communication concerning the financial arrangements for your journey to Savannah and your sojourn there.

I am confident that should you find it possible to attend, your interest and wide experience will serve to enhance the effectiveness of the Delegation's participation in this important organizational meeting.

Sincerely yours,

Enclosure:

List.

The Honorable
Marriner S. Eccles,
Chairman, Board of Governors,
Federal Reserve System,
Member, National Advisory Council.
