

SECRET

A BILL

To provide for assistance to Greece and Turkey

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled, That notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, the President may from time to time when he deems it in the national interest furnish assistance to Greece and Turkey:

(a) By rendering financial aid in the form of loans, credits or otherwise, to the governments of those countries;

(b) By detailing to the governments of those countries any persons in the employ of the Government of the United States in the same manner as he may detail pursuant to the Act of May 25, 1938 (52 Stat. 442), as amended, the persons therein specified;

(c) By detailing to the governments of those countries officers and enlisted men of the United States Army, Navy, and Marine Corps in the same manner as he may detail such officers and enlisted men pursuant to the Act of May 19, 1926 (44 Stat. 565), as amended; and

SECRET

(d) By providing for: (i) the instruction and training of personnel of those countries, and (ii) the procurement for, by manufacture or otherwise, and the transfer to, the governments of those countries of any articles, services, and technical information.

Sec. 2. The terms and conditions upon which assistance may be furnished under this Act shall be determined by the President: Provided, That payment by the governments of Greece and Turkey by reimbursement or advancement shall be required for any assistance furnished or to be furnished under subsections (b) - (d) of section 1 and not paid from funds appropriated pursuant to this Act: Provided further, That any such advancements by the governments of Greece and Turkey shall be available for the purposes for which made, and any reimbursements, whether by those governments or from funds appropriated pursuant to this Act, shall be credited, at the option of the United States Government department, agency, or independent establishment concerned, either to the appropriation, fund, or account utilized in incurring the obligation, or to an appropriate appropriation, fund, or account which is current at the time of such reimbursement.

Sec. 3. As a condition precedent to the receipt of any assistance pursuant to this Act the governments of Greece and Turkey shall undertake (a) to permit free access of United States Government officials for the purpose of observing that such assistance is utilized effectively and in accordance with the undertakings of the recipient government; (b) to permit representatives of the press and radio of the United States to observe freely and to report fully regarding the utilization of such assistance; (c) not to transfer, without the consent of the President of the United States, title to or possession of any article or information transferred pursuant to this Act nor to permit, without such consent, the use of any such article or the use or disclosure of any such information by or to anyone not an officer, employee, or agent of the recipient government; and (d) to make provisions comparable to those customarily made by the United States for the security of any article or information received under the terms of this Act.

Sec. 4 (a). Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, the _____ is authorized and directed, until such time as an appropriation shall be made pursuant to subsection (b) of this section, to make available to the governments of Greece and Turkey not to exceed $100,000,000, in such manner as the President shall determine pursuant to subsection (a) of section 1.

(b) There is hereby authorized to be appropriated to the President not to exceed $400,000,000 to carry out the provisions of this Act: Provided, That not to exceed $100,000,000 of any funds so appropriated shall be used to reimburse the _____ for amounts made available to Greece and Turkey pursuant to subsection (a) of this section.

SECRET

Sec. 5. The President may from time to time promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary and proper to carry out any of the provisions of this Act; and he may exercise any power or authority conferred upon him pursuant to this Act through such department, agency, independent establishment, or officer of the Government as he shall direct.

Sec. 6. The President shall submit to the Congress quarterly reports of the assistance furnished under authority of this Act.

SECRET