

July 14, 1942.

My dear Governor Towers:

If you have a mailing list for your addresses and could put me on it, I would very much appreciate it. Quantities of speeches come to my office that were better never put in the mails, but yours are not and would not be among them. Noting in an American magazine recently a pertinent quotation from a speech of yours, I made a mental note to ask you for copies in the future of your public talks and statements. I am most favorably impressed by the success you have had in financing outside the banks.

I hope that if you have occasion to come to Washington you will not fail to let me know.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) M. S. Eccles

Honorable G. F. Towers,

The Hon. Marriner S. Eccles,
Chairman of the Board of Governors,
Federal Reserve System,
Washington.

My dear Mr. Eccles,

I have been away from Ottawa for a few days, and have therefore been slow in replying to your letter of July 14th. I have put your name on the mailing list for any addresses which I may make - although they only come about once every two years. A copy of my remarks to the Bankers Association for Foreign Trade is enclosed herewith.

I have not been in Washington since I saw you last, about October 1941. This is too long a lapse, and I am keen to make another visit as soon as I possibly can - I hope some time within the next six weeks. I shall most certainly get in touch with you when the time comes.

With best regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

July 30, 1942.

My dear Governor Towers:

Thank you very much for sending me the copy of your address in which I was interested, particularly in the personal income tax rates on the lower incomes and in your success in financing outside of the commercial banks. I appreciate also your putting my name on the mailing list. I realize that you are an infrequent speaker, as I am.

I should like very much to have the pleasure of seeing you and I hope, therefore, that your visit to Washington will be soon as my present plan is to be away for a few weeks, leaving here around August 20.

With best regards,

Sincerely yours,

Honorable G. F. Towers,
Governor,
Bank of Canada,
Ottawa, Canada.
