My dear Mr. Eccles,

Referring to our earlier correspondence, I now expect to be in Washington from the 20th of September through September 22nd or 23rd. I would propose to give your office a call on Monday, the 21st, to find if it would be convenient for you to see me.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "G. F. Lower". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large initial "G" and a long, sweeping underline.
