Dear Mr. Eccles,

I am planning a trip to Washington, to arrive Monday, December 4th and stay until the late afternoon of Wednesday, the 6th. I hope that you are going to be in Washington at that time and that I shall have the pleasure of seeing you.

Yours sincerely,

The Hon. Marriner S. Eccles,
Chairman of the Board of Governors,
Federal Reserve System,
Washington 25.

Dear Governor Towers:

This is to thank you for your note of November 16 advising me of your expected visit to Washington during the first week of December. I expect to be here at that time and I shall look forward, as always, with great pleasure to seeing you.

I am wondering if you would be free to take lunch with me and possibly other members of the Board who are here at the time on Wednesday, the sixth. I would appreciate it if you would get in touch with me on your arrival so we can arrange a mutually convenient time, which I trust will be the suggested luncheon engagement.

Sincerely yours,

Hon. G. F. Towers,
Governor,
Bank of Canada,
Ottawa.

Dear Mr. Eccles,

Many thanks for your letter of November 24th. I shall be delighted to have lunch with you, and possibly other members of the Board, on Wednesday, the 6th. After I arrive in Washington, I will get in touch with your office in regard to the time you would like me to turn up on the 6th.

Yours sincerely,

The Hon. Marriner S. Eccles,
Chairman of the Board of Governors,

A SUGGESTION:

You have a turkey you plan to use for the Board.

You usually have Towers for lunch with the Board, having special menu.

Why not hold the turkey until the 6th and use it for a special luncheon for Towers, even inviting Morgenthau, Stettinius, or some others outside as you have sometimes done - a large turkey should serve quite a few; have baked Irish or sweet potatoes, an appropriate salad, etc.

I suggest the 6th because the Advisory Council
