

January 3, 1939.

Mr. Alphonsus J. Murphy,
148 State Street,
Boston, Massachusetts.

Dear Mr. Murphy:

This is to thank you for your letter of December 26th with reference to my recent open letter addressed to Senator Byrd. It is gratifying to have your favorable comments and your very pertinent observations. I wanted you to know that I appreciated your courtesy in writing.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.

ET:b

Dec - 26 - 38

Dear Mr. Coker -

Bully for you -

It's time some of the men of Byrdi type were reprimanded for their calamity howling - to please the special interests that keep them in the Senate.

Ash him some day - how many men he will give work and wages to - after the government lets them go -

Precious few ill wages -

Vandenberg is another gentleman who needs a good call -

He is falling back on the silly talk of a few years back about our children and our children's children - but the time specifies his own grandsons -

Senator Glass of course must be let off because of his age and past service - but even he should recall the stupid opposition to his Federal Reserve Bill - and draw a few lessons in his mind -

Yours truly
A. J. Murphy