

Clipping not enclosed.

JAMES H. WOLFE
JUSTICE SUPREME COURT
THE CAPITOL
SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH

December 27, 1938

Hon. Marriner S. Eccles
Governor, Federal Reserve Board
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

I was very much pleased to read in the Tribune concerning your letter to Senator Byrd of Virginia. I am glad somebody is taking this apple picker to task. The Senate as well as the House seems to be just filled with men who have only the most superficial ideas of economics and who have not even the charm and the background of the English Tories.

I enclose a little clipping by Joseph Newton Ford on Tories which may interest you.

I follow from afar, through press dispatches from time to time, your very interesting career. I dropped in to see you once or twice while in Washington, but you were not available. Keep up the good work.

I hope that the next year will be very enjoyable for you and Mrs. Eccles.

Sincerely,

James H. Wolfe.

January 5, 1939.

Dear Judge Wolfe:

Your letter of December 27th commenting upon my recent reply to Senator Byrd of Virginia is very much appreciated. I am glad to have your continued encouragement, and I regret that I missed seeing you when you came into the office when you were in Washington.

I wanted to thank you for writing and to reciprocate on behalf of Mrs. Eccles and myself your best wishes of the New Year.

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.

Honorable James H. Wolfe,
Justice Supreme Court,
The Capital,
Salt Lake City, Utah.
