

Mr. M. S. Coates ^{pres}

Dear sir!

Hundreds of thousands of W.P.A workers are inimical to our government of them are italians, who as a whole believe in musolini, germans, enough of them, who are followers of Hitler, and a very poor-stupid class, who believe in the radio priest, also a detractor as Ford, who imports his stuff from abroad. all these three are avowed foes of our government and reflect their enmity upon their followers, who according to my belief were the cause of the down voting of the democratic candidates in the last election. It something like escaping a trap and falling into a ditch; it is a bit problematic. stupid persons being free from hurry and worry are also apt to assume an autocratic attitude and be added to the real autocrats in defying this country's efforts ^{plus} sustain our democratic princi

I believe that caution must be exercised and together with the bread some enlightenment must should come. There, in the countries whose principles they believe in, have concentration camps for their opponents and here they can receive with one hand and with the other kick over the same body that feeds them, therefore carelessness should be eliminated and chisels and files be discarded

truly yours
