Honorable Marriner Eccles,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Eccles:

This to offer a mead of encouragement in your policy by informing you that you made one more convert.

Your policy as I interpret it is to keep on borrowing money. The greater amount of money you borrow, the higher the taxes. The higher the taxes, the greater the unemployment. With a sufficient increase in unemployment, none of us need work. To H--- with balancing the budget.

Very truly yours,

Henry J. Blais.
