Honorable John M. Coffee
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Coffee:

At Mr. Eccles' direction I am enclosing herewith a copy of his address before the New Jersey Bankers Association on May 13, 1938, which discusses the problem of savings and investment, also a copy of his address before the New York Chapter of the American Institute of Banking, on December 1, 1938, and a copy of his open letter to Senator Byrd of Virginia, dated December 22, 1938, the latter two discussing the question of government spending.

Mr. Eccles asked me to advise you also that he has had your name added to his mailing list so that you will receive copies of material issued by his office in connection with current economic and monetary problems.

*Placed on
