

The Evening Star—The Sunday Star
WASHINGTON, D. C.

ICE OF THE MANAGING EDITOR

January 25, 1939.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

I want to thank you again for your willingness to take part in the National Radio Forum and to congratulate you on the fine speech that you delivered.

I am sending some printed copies of the speech to your office the latter part of this week.

With best wishes to you,

Yours sincerely,

B. M. McKelway
B. M. McKelway
Managing Editor.

Mr. Marriner S. Eccles, Chairman,
Board of Governors,
The Federal Reserve System,
Federal Reserve Building,
Washington, D. C.

January 31, 1939.

Dear Mr. McKelway:

Permit me to thank you for your thoughtful note of January 25th with regard to my address on the National Radio Forum and for the printed copies of the text of this talk. I greatly appreciated your courtesy in permitting me to present my side of the discussion in the Forum.

It is evident from the large volume of mail which I have received that you have a tremendous audience and that my effort was not altogether in vain.

I want to say again that I appreciated your excellent, if too flattering, introduction.

With kindest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.

Mr. B. M. McKelway, Managing Editor,
The Evening Star,
Washington, D. C.

ET:b

The Evening Star—The Sunday Star
WASHINGTON, D. C.

CE OF THE MANAGING EDITOR

January 17, 1939.

Mr. Marriner S. Eccles, Chairman,
Board of Governors,
Federal Reserve System,
Federal Reserve Building,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

All of us here and at the radio station are delighted that you can make the speech in the National Radio Forum next Monday evening.

The time is 10:30 p. m. and the place is the National Broadcasting Company studio in the Translux Building at Fourteenth and New York Avenue. I shall be there to meet you at about 10:15 for a brief voice test.

While I want to meet your convenience, it will be helpful to us in having your speech mimeographed and distributed to the Washington correspondents if we can get a copy on Saturday. The speaking time will be 22 minutes.

With best wishes to you,

Yours sincerely,

B. M. McKelway,
Managing Editor.

ms