

K Jan 23. 1938

O Dear Mr Eccles:

Heard your address
over the radio tonight
and enjoyed it very much.

Of all the senators
thought as you do,
maybe we wouldn't have so much misery
in the world, but most of them are living in the past, and can't see the signs of the changing world.

O Maybe Sen. Byrd has never been hungry or cold and can't ^{imagine} what it is to be without a job.

I know several men who are working on the W.P.A. and it was a
good send, blessing to them

I think Pres. Roosevelt is the greatest President we ever had but people have so much
hate on they hearts
that they cant see his greatness

Mr Eccles just continue to promote your ideas
and maybe prosperity
will come to us once again

Sincerely Yours
