Honorable Marrine S. Eccles
Chairman of the Board of Governors
Federal Reserve System
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

Kindly permit me to extend my congratulations to you on account of your most able radio address delivered last evening. In my opinion it was more enlightening than any condensed statement on the state of the Nation's finances that has been delivered for public edification.

If it is possible, I would greatly appreciate receiving at least one copy for my personal use, and several others for distribution to my fellow workers.

Yours very truly,

ELMER ELLIS
