Hon. Marriner S. Eccles, Chairman,
Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Eccles:

The best radio talk I have listened to, with more common sense and information, was the one you delivered last night over the radio.

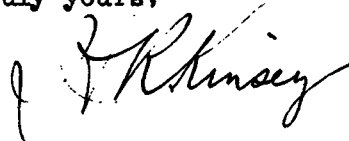

The more of this to the people of our country, the better off we shall all be.

We owe you much.

If a copy of the address has been printed, I should dearly like to have one.

With kindest regards, I am

Very truly yours,

Mr. Henry R. Kinsey, President
The Williamsburgh Savings Bank
One Hanson Place
Brooklyn, New York

Dear Mr. Kinsey:

I wish to acknowledge and thank you for your letter of January 24 in which you were good enough to compliment me on my recent radio address. While I have had numerous expressions of approval there have been few compliments from members of the banking fraternity and in particular the heads of large banking institutions. This was as I expected and for that reason your approval is the more gratifying.

As requested, I am enclosing herewith a copy of the radio address.

With kindest regards, I am

Yours sincerely,

M. S. Eccles
Chairman
