

January 24. 1939

Mr. Mariner S. Eccles - Chairman
Federal Reserve Board.

Washington, D.C.

My dear Mr. Eccles: —

Last night at 10.30 P. M., I gave my undivided attention to your address "Beneficial Spending" in rebuttal to the notorious Senator Byrd, as it came over W. J. G., under the auspices of the National Radio Forum.

Running true to form the press in this locality ignored your remarks, as it does any truth that is of benefit to the present administration. Consequently I'm asking you if it is possible to get copies of your address?

Very truly yours,

J. W. Longstaff
