Address All Communications to the Company

WINCHESTER, IDAHO

March 1, 1939

Honorable Marriner S. Eccles,
Chairman Federal Reserve Board,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Marriner:

I just returned from Ogden and San Francisco and find your letter of the 20th, and I greatly appreciate your forwarding to me the address which you delivered on January 23, 1939.

While at Salt Lake I met Fred Taylor and he had just received from you, a copy of this address and as he was on the train going to Denver I had an opportunity to read it between Ogden and Salt Lake. I am thoroughly in harmony with your ideas.

I realize that there are so many pressing matters resting on your shoulders at this time, but if you have an opportunity to write me at any time I assure you it will be greatly appreciated.

With kind personal regards and best wishes, I am

Yours very truly,

W. C. Geddes
