

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF
ST. LOUIS

OFFICE OF
THE PRESIDENT

April 28, 1942

Honorable Marriner S. Eccles, Chairman
Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System
Washington, D. C.

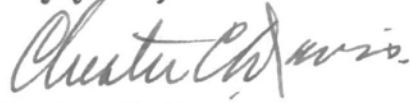

Dear Marriner:

I am enclosing the new organization chart of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, and would be glad to have your comment and criticism when you have had an opportunity to examine it.

All the changes in operating procedure which show here have not yet been made, but they are being effected steadily, and in general this represents the division of responsibilities and the operating plan of the Bank.

With personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Chester C. Davis
President

11.
May 7, 1942.

Mr. Chester C. Davis, President,
Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis,
St. Louis, Missouri.

Dear Chester:

Thanks for yours of April 28 with which you enclosed a chart of the present organization of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis. While I have not had the opportunity to give this any close scrutiny, it appears off-hand to be a thorough and workable plan. I shall be glad to pass it on to my associates for their information.

With best wishes and hoping to see you ere long, I am

Sincerely yours,

M. S. Eccles,
Chairman.
