

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF ST. LOUIS

CHESTER C. DAVIS
PRESIDENT

June 19, 1942

Dear Marriner:

It was impossible for Randle Gilbert and me to get to Washington Saturday, but we are both planning to be there on Sunday morning. Randle will arrive quite early. My train does not get in until 9:30. I told Randle I would come directly to the Carlton Hotel, pick him up, and go directly to the Shoreham to meet you and Larry.

I realize that this arrangement takes you and Larry out of a Sunday morning foursome and makes it necessary to start the game pretty late in the day. If you and Larry want to play in the breakfast foursome, there may be some others who would be willing to start late. I hope, as I know Randle does, that we can get in our round with you, however.

If this arrangement is not convenient, I suggest that you get hold of Randle at the Carlton Hotel early Sunday morning and leave any word as to other arrangements there with him.

Looking forward to seeing you, I am

Sincerely,

Honorable Marriner S. Eccles, Chairman
Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System
Washington, D. C.
