

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF
ST. LOUIS

March 30, 1943.

Honorable M. S. Eccles, Chairman,
Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Chairman Eccles:

I am sending under separate cover a recording of a radio talk made by Mr. Davis just before he left St. Louis.

In view of your discussion about the need for greater education of the public on the subject of inflation, I think you would be interested in his remarks.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely,

Henry H. Edmiston,
Assistant Vice President.

April 7, 1943.

Dear Henry:

This is to thank you for your letter of March 30 and for sending the recording of Chester Davis' radio talk which was made just before he was drafted for hard labor on the agricultural front.

As I have to go on the air next Wednesday evening (10:30 at Station WMAL, Evening Star Radio Forum), I hope to get a chance to play this record and get some pointers on proper technique.

With best regards,

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Henry H. Edmiston,
Assistant Vice President,
Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis,
St. Louis, Missouri.
