Hon. M. S. Eccles, Chairman,
Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Eccles:

I wrote you under date of
December 28th that I expected to be in Washington on January 28th for the Business
Advisory Council meeting, but would stay until the 29th to see you.

I now find that I will be in Washington on the 27th also. Would it be possible for you to have lunch with me on the 27th?

Sincerely yours,

January 18, 1937.

General R. E. Wood, President,
Sears, Roebuck and Co.,
Chicago, Illinois.

My dear General Wood:

Mr. Eccles has asked me to advise you, in reply to your letter of January 15th, that he is going to be tied up in a Board meeting all day on Wednesday, the 27th, and therefore it will not be possible for him to have luncheon with you or see you at any time during the day. It may be that he can arrange to see you the evening of the 27th or sometime during the day on Thursday, the 28th.

If you will get in touch with him upon your arrival, a definite time for an appointment can be arranged.

Very truly yours,

Secretary to Mr. M. S. Eccles.

Miss Va Lois Egbert,
Secretary to M. S. Eccles,
Board of Governors,
Federal Reserve System,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Miss Egbert:

Acknowledging the receipt of your letter of January 18th to General Wood, he left the city yesterday for Atlanta and will not return to Chicago until after he has been in Washington.

Your letter is being forwarded to him in order that he may get in touch with Mr. Eccles on his arrival in Washington relative to arranging a definite appointment.

Very truly yours,

J. M. Richardson
Secretary to R. E. Wood
