

January 6, 1941.

Dear General Wood:

In order that I may repair the omission of your likeness from the collection of autographed photographs which I have assembled for some years for my library, I am herewith requesting that you supply me with an autographed photograph of yourself. I shall have to be content with that reminder of our association in the Federal Reserve System now that I have no choice but to bow to your decision to withdraw from the council table.

I want to take this opportunity to convey again my best wishes of the season.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Robert E. Wood,
