Dear Madam:

I find that I neglected to enclose with Mr. Flanders' letter of today the manuscript which he wished to send to Mr. Eccles. I am enclosing it herewith, and regret the inconvenience caused.

Sincerely yours,

Barbara Bishop

Mr. Ralph E. Flanders, President,
Federal Reserve Bank of Boston,
Boston 6, Massachusetts.

Dear Ralph:

As the Chairman is still in Utah, I wanted to thank you on his behalf for sending a copy of your oration of September 28 before the New England Shippers Advisory Board.

I have not, I regret to say, yet had a chance to read it, but I felt you were getting on thin ice when laying claim to the world's greatest orchestra and the world's greatest conductor. These are subjects of high controversy!

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) Elliott Thurston
