

HAROLD L. CHEADLE

Born: 10/13/14 at Salem, South Dakota

Married - 2 sons

Education - Salem District Schools
" High School - 2 years
Defiance High School, Defiance, Ohio - 2 years
Miami University (Oxford, Ohio) - BA degree
American University, Graduate School (Mo. candidate for PH.D.)

(Was out of school from June 1933 to Sept. 1937 because depression - no money to continue)

Positions - Library of Congress (research) 11/1940 to 5/1942
Lt. Commander in Navy 5/1942 to 9/1946
"Teaching Fellow" while attending American Un. 9/46 to 8/47
Library of Congress - 8/1947 to time employed by Fed. Reserve

Salary - Group S $4149.60-4902 (started at $4,149.60)

Residence - 12 Perry Avenue, Kensington, Maryland

Member of Civil Service Retirement System

"Comments received about him are excellent, indicating that his economic work at The Library of Congress has been "not only satisfactory, but at times brilliant", that he is "a hard worker, a clear thinker, and a good writer", that he is a person of excellent character, with a vigorous personality and the ability to cooperate well in working with others.

Apparently a fine student - the record shows A and B grading throughout